

Career Perspectives

with a PhD in Natural & Life Sciences

Looking for career options after your doctorate? And not sure what is “out there”? With this series, we would like to offer an opportunity for interactive and informal exchange about career-related topics. You will meet former PhD candidates who will share with you their experiences including ups and downs looking for a job.

Always on the 2nd Thursday of a month, 5 – 6 pm

online
