Introductory days for winter term 2023/24

October 11 to 13 2023

Dear soon-to-be master students,

We, the student initiative at the Geography Department, welcome you! For an easy and pleasant start in your master's program, we would like to introduce you to the campus, our department and your study program's structure in our introduction days from October 11th to 13th. You'll find the schedule for our introduction days on the next page. Some activities are designed for Bachelor students but are nevertheless very helpful for students new to Humboldt University or the campus.

October 27th to 29th will be our weekend trip for new students. We'll take you out "into the wild" for a weekend, with plenty of time to get to know each other and have fun with all kinds of activities. The entire weekend trip will cost you 45€, including transport, food and accomodation. The trip is designed for Bachelor students but will be a fun experience for new master students, too. Please note that the registration as well as most of the trip activities will be in German language. Number of trip participants is limited, so make sure to register soon on <https://www.geographie.hu-berlin.de/de/studium/bewerbung/orientierungstage/erstsemester-fahrt-geographie-2023> .

For any questions regarding the introduction days or your study program in general, feel free to contact our student guidance at studienberatung.geographie@geo.hu-berlin.de .

We are looking forward to meeting you during our introduction days and our weekend trip!

Best,
your student representatives in geography
