ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

German Language requirements
The required level of German language skills is B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages and can be proven by submitting a Goethe-Zertifikat B2/C1, DSH or TestDaF. Alternatively students can do an online language placement test (C-Test); required score: 60 points. If students fail to achieve the required score, they have the option to enroll in an Intensive Language Course (600 €) prior to the start of the semester. To apply for that Course the result of the C-Test requires a minimum score of 45 points.

Please visit the HU Language Centre's website for more information.

English Language requirements
Applicants (non-native speakers) who plan to participate in English speaking courses only, are required to prove English language proficiency at the B2 level or higher (equivalent TOEFL: min. 80, IELTS: min. 6.0.). Alternatively, students can do an online language placement test (C-Test).

Language certificates should not be older than 2 years!

Please note that not all departments at HU Berlin offer courses in English, especially on the Undergraduate level.
Special language requirements:
Faculty of Language, Literature and Humanities / Department of English and American Studies
Undergraduate students need to prove English language proficiency at B2 level or higher.
Graduate students need to prove English language proficiency at C1 level or higher.

Special language and math requirements:
School of Business and Economics
The language of instruction of all the department’s Master programs is English. The courses at the School of Business and Economics have a strong emphasis on imparting rigorous and quantitative methods of economic analysis and management science. A strong background in Mathematics is essential.

ARRIVAL INFORMATION

Accommodation

On-campus accommodation is NOT available. Accommodation in student housing: Student dormitories (Wohnheime) vary in standard and price, and are not located in the city center. Travel time to the main campus is about 50 minutes. Available student dorms are limited and assigned by lottery principle. Please refer to our accommodation guide for more information on housing in Berlin.

Health Insurance

Proof of health insurance is mandatory for enrollment. Students* are eligible to obtain health insurance coverage from a German statutory health insurance provider at a special student rate (approx. 130 €/month). Students can also apply for exemption/recognition of their foreign health insurance, if it meets the minimum criteria of a German statutory health insurance plan. Our information page for health questions provides more detailed insight to the German health care system.

*(enrolled up to the 14th semester or up to the age of 30)

Semester Fee

Payment of the semester fee is mandatory for enrollment. The semester fee consists of the public transportation ticket for the duration of the semester (6 months), as well as a contribution to the student welfare organization, the student union, and a solidarity contribution. The matriculation fee is waived for exchange students. The semester fee is not a tuition fee.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Available scholarships for exchange students:

None available directly from Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin, possible scholarships available through the German Academic Exchange Service.
