

Composition of the doctoral commission pursuant to §9 of the Doctoral Regulations dated April 3, 2024 (AMB HU 16/2024)

At least 2 reviewers

- University professors (Prof.)
- Habilitated researchers (PD)
- Heads of independent junior research groups
- Retired university professors (only in conjunction with an active member of the Faculty of Language, Literature and Humanities)
- The supervisor of the dissertation may be appointed as a reviewer
- Recommendation: At least one review should be provided by a university professor from outside Humboldt University of Berlin

3 additional university professors or PDs

- Chair: A professor from the Faculty of Language, Literature and Humanities
- At least two university professors or habilitated academic staff (PD) from the Faculty of Language, Literature and Humanities
- The supervisor and one university professor or PD must belong to different institutes or departments

1 postdoctoral academic staff member

1 student (advisory capacity)

Notes:

- Supervisors and doctoral candidates may propose the composition of the commission, but these suggestions are not binding.
- A third review is required if the distinction "summa cum laude" is to be awarded. In this case, one of the three reviews must be external, i.e., from outside Humboldt University.
