Important information: Incomplete registrations will not be processed!

You can only take the examination if you can prove your identity and status at Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin on the date of the examination. You can do so with your student ID in combination with your identity card, driver's license or passport.

Visiting students must also show their visiting student ID. Students without ID cannot sit the examination. All students must provide proof of their status at Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin.

Please note: If you are unable to provide proof of your identity and/or status at Humboldt-Universität, it is not possible for you to be admitted to the examination on a provisional basis!

¹ Examination consultation is only compulsory for Humboldt-Universität students if it is the third exam at a compulsory module or if the options in the catalogue of electives have been exhausted. The consultation is provided either by the Examination Board or by the examiners. Students also have the right to waive the examination consultation.
