WILEY PUBLICATION WORKSHOP

Opening the Editor's Black Box: Insider Tips for Successful Submissions

by Nicole Harrington-Frost & Anne Nijs

When: 18. January 2024, from 10 A.M. to 1 P.M.
Where: School of Analytical Sciences Adlershof
        Albert-Einstein-Str. 5-9, 1.OG Room 218
        12489 Berlin-Adlershof

In this workshop, we will share best practices for scientific writing and explain how manuscripts are processed in the editorial office from submission to publication.

The workshop is tailored to the needs of master's and PhD students as well as postdocs. The insider knowledge they will learn will help them increase their chances for successful publication in the future.

Topics to be covered include:
* How do I simplify my writing and improve the presentation of my results?
* How does the peer review process work and what do editors and referees look for?
* An introduction to publication ethics, AI in this context, and open science.
