

Subject-specific regulations for cumulative doctoral examinations – Department of Physics

A cumulative doctoral examination at the Department of Physics must consist of at least four publications which have appeared in peer-reviewed journals and of which the doctoral student is the sole author.