Online Workshop Series „Writing a PhD in science“
#1

Dr. Silvia Conti

Publishing in Nature Portfolio journals

Content:

The talk “Publishing in Nature Portfolio journals” will be held by Dr. Silvia Conti, one of the editors of Nature Reviews Electrical Engineering, and is intended to cover the essential aspects of scientific writing and publishing with a strong emphasis on Nature journal standards and best practices. The presentation will provide the opportunity to learn about the Nature family of journals and its hierarchy. We will touch upon the editorial criteria, content types and peer-review process. Finally, the key strategies for writing a scientific publication will be presented with the emphasis on the differences between the publication process in Nature Reviews and Nature Research journals.

Workshop language: English
