Svenja Neupert

Agile project management I: Basics, key factors and practices

Date & Time: Tuesday, January 21, 2020, 9:30 am – 4:30 pm

Venue: Humboldt-Kabinett, Rudower Chaussee 25, 12489 Berlin

Target group: female doctoral candidates and postdocs

Maximum number of participants: 12

Content
- Basics: Agile Project Management - An Overview
- Differences and additions to traditional project management methods
- Phases of an agile project
- Requirements / conditions for agile projects
- Values and principles for a reliable team
- Practices for agile development
- Dealing with changes in the process
- Key Factors: Team and diversity competence
- Responsibility, cooperation and commitment in an agile team.
- Team communication.
- Knowledge Management - the learning project management organization

Methods
Input, reflection and discussion, group and team exercises

About the trainer
Svenja Neupert, a speaker, coach, trainer, and organisational consultant, is an expert on Future Leadership. For more than 25 years she has worked closely with clients from national and international corporations as well as universities and research institutes. Svenja Neupert will help you to discover unconventional approaches to your thinking and coach you to follow your talents. She believes that everyone can realize his or her unique potential in business life and have fun and fulfilment at work. (www.kompetenzia-international.com/)

Please register by January 16, 2020 by e-mail: petra.metz@hu-berlin.de